

INDEX TO VOL. XVIII.

(NEW SERIES.)

ARTICLES AND SUBJECTS.

A.

Allies [Journal in France, &c.], 151—181. Aspect of the Church in France, 151, 152. Dr. Wordsworth, 153. The Author's purpose, 154; defection, 155. Value of the work, 156. Education in France, Extracts, 157—166. Self-devotion of the French Clergy, 167. Defects of this system, 168. Extracts, 169—171. Political relations of the French Church, 172—176. French Missions, 176. How the French Clergy meet infidelity, 177, 178. Prospects of the Church of Rome, 179—181. Architecture [Histories of Architecture by Messrs. Poole and Freeman], 182—225. Revival of Christian Architecture, 182; its connexion with doctrinal and practical revival, 183, 184. Its literature, 185. The Archaeological and Ecclesiological schools, 186—188. Mr. Poole's object, 189. Summary of his work, 190—192. Mr. Freeman's object, 193. Diversities of style, 194—198. His summary of Greek Architecture, 199. Criticism of Mr. Freeman, 200—222. Prospects of Christian Architecture, 223—225.

C.

Cathedrals and Cathedral Institutions [Publications by Messrs. Sidney Herbert, Whiston, Wesley, &c.], 373—403. State of the capitular bodies, 373, 374. How the pleas for their preservation have failed, 375, 376. Need of reform, 377, 378. Cathedral services, 379. Choirs, 380—383. Schools, 384—388. Mr. Whiston's case, 389—392. Who is responsible, 393. Case continued, 394—397. Memorial on choirs, 399—401. Tabular view, 402, 403.

G.

Geology and Revelation [Publications by Sir Charles Lyell, &c.], 226—248. Present state of geological science, 226. Its contact with revelation, 227—229. Measure of this contact, 230, 231. Connexion with inspiration, 232, 233. Different provinces of science and theology, 234—237. Unfairness of Lyell, 238, 239. The Christian method of philosophy, 240—248.

NO. LXVI.—N. S.

Greece, the Church in [Curzon's Visit to the Levant], 114—150. Our neglect of the Greek Church, 114. Mr. Curzon's object, 115. Account of his work, 116—120. Testimony of the Greek Church, 121. Its constitution and present state, 122—126. Kairea, 126—128. Simple obedience of the Greeks, 129; their orthodoxy and practice, their discipline and temper, 130—144. Little value of Mr. Curzon's book on these points, 144. Extracts, 145, 146. The Monastic System, 147, 148. What our duties are, 149, 150.

H.

Horace [Milman's Edition], 267—287. The older editions, 267. Milman's qualifications, 268. The Use, 269, 270. The Horatian era, 271—274. Appearance of Horace, 275. His life, character, influence, and philosophy, 276—286. Popularity of the Horatian temper, 287.

Hymnology, English [Hymn-Books and Collections by Watts, Wesley, Doddridge, &c.], 302—343. Influence of the Reformation on Hymnology, 303. The Elizabethan writers, 304. Shirley, 305. The New Version, its era, 306. Watts's Hymns: their character and success, and faults, 307—311. Translation, 312. Doddridge, 313. The Wesleys, 314—316. Whitefield, 317. Cennick, 318. Toplady, 319. The Olney Hymns, ibid. Other collections, 320. Revival in the English Church—its influence on Hymnology, 321. The Breviary Hymns, 322. Various translations from the Roman books, 323—334. Hymns for Children, 335. Watts, Taylor, Williams, Neale, 335—340. Evangelical Melodies, 340—343.

J.

Jerusalem [Williams's Holy City], 418—476. Estimate of travel, 418, 419. Jerusalem, its manifold importance, 420, 421. Its site, 422—427. Spirit in which it must be studied, 428. Mr. Williams's usual temper, 429. Estimate of his work, 430—433. Its plan and objects, 434—436. Dr. Robinson, 437, 438. State of the controversy between Williams and Robinson, 439—442. History of Jerusalem, 443—465. Its topography, 466—476.

M M

M.

Meinhold [Sidonia, a Tale, &c.], 344—372. How far literary deception is allowable, 344. A question of degree, 345, 346. Meinhold's 'Amber Witch', 346, 347. Sidonia, 348. Its faults, 349. Meinhold's estimate of rationalism, 350. Witchcraft, 351. Analysis and criticism of Sidonia, 352—370. Its resemblance to Vanity Fair, 371, 372.

P.

Palestrina, Biography of [Publications by Afteri, &c.], 404—417. Age of Palestrina, 404. State of Church Music, 405. Biography of Palestrina and estimate of his works, 406—415. Catalogue of his works, 416, 417.

R.

Rationalism [Works by Messrs. Morell and Francis Newman], 65—85. The character of Morell's Rationalism, 65. Its true view, 66. Character of Morell's work, 67. Matter and Substance, 68. Criterion of intuition, 68, 69. Its application to inspiration and the laws of Truth, 70, 71. To the doctrine of Mediation, 72; as applied by Dr. Hampden, 73. The natural and supernatural views of inspiration, 74; contrasted with Church doctrine, 75, 76. Objections to Morell's theory, 77. Mr. F. Newman's work, 78. Its 'Evangelical' language, 79, 80. On preaching, 81. His views the complement of Puritan theology, 82, 83. Their probable results, 84, 85.

Rupert, Prince, and the Cavaliers [Eliot Warburton's Memoirs of, &c.], 86—113. General characteristics of Charles's reign, 86, 87. Warburton's style and historical powers, 88, 89. His aim, 90. Life of Prince Rupert, 91, &c. Extracts from the work, 92—113.

S.

Stesichorus, remains of, and other lost writings of antiquity [Editions by Giles and Kleine], 1—28. Imperfect character of fragments, 1. Lost Classics, 2. Stesichorus, 3. His biography, 4—8. His fragments, 9. Translations of these fragments, 10—24. Influence of fragments on language, &c. 24—28.

T.

Taylor's Poems [Notes from Life, Eve of the Conquest, &c.], 29—64. Reserve of authors, 29. Modes of composition, 30, 31. Notes from Life, 32. Extracts and criticisms, 33, 34. Style and expression, 35. Language, 36—38. Poetry, its definition, 39; an art, 40, 41. Illustrations from Taylor, 42—46. Ornaments of poetry, 47, 48. Mr. Taylor's obscurity, 49, 50. His use of technical language, 51. His contempt of passion, 52—54. His estimate of love and marriage, 55—59. Taylor's Essays, 60—62. His poem on Italy, 63, 64.

Tempter, the [Scenes where the Tempter has triumphed], 288—301. Taking titles, 288—290. Exaggerated subjects, 291. Connexion of this work with actual scenes, 291. The work a decided failure, 292. Extracts from, and criticisms upon it, 293—301.

SHORTER NOTICES OF BOOKS AND PAMPHLETS.

JULY.—Children's Books, Religious Tales, &c.
 —Adelaide's Gift—Shepherds of Bethlehem
 —Nicholson on Baptism—Marshall on Baptism—Harrington against Macaulay
 —Babington against Macaulay—Gatty on Baptism—Hibbs on Baptism—Charges by Archdeacons Hale and Sinclair—Remarks on the Record, &c.—Vaughan's Letter to Mr.
 Miles—Cosserat's Letter to Bishop of Exeter
 —Cottrell's Religion in Germany—Lyon against Duke of Argyll—Ross on Diocesan Colleges—Cavendish's Letter to Archbishop of Canterbury—Barter's Warning, &c.— Heurtley on Public Worship—Hewett on Exeter Cathedral—Winston on Painted
 Glass—Education of Choristers at S. Paul's—Sherlock's Practical Christian—J. Taylor's Life of Christ—Parker's Liber Precum—Self-murder—Hook on the Miracles—Bowtell on Brasses—Balmez on Protestantism—Williams's Holy City—Nitzsch's System of Doctrine—Wordsworth's Edition of Apocalypse—Walcot's Westminster—Seymour's Mornings with Jesuits—Parthenogenesis—Knox on Daniel—Prof. Butler's Sermons—Frithard's Sermons and Life of Hincmar—Sermons by Chanter, Harper, Jackson, Heurtley—Devout Chorister—Doyle's Cedipus—Plea for Sisterhoods—Abridgment of Theophilus Anglicanus—Whewell's Edition of Butler's Sermons—
 Rodriguez on Perfection—Quadrupani's
 Christian Consolled—Herbert's Poems, &c.— White's Marigold Window—Annals of Colonial Church—Judith—Biber's Life of S. Paul —Willmott's Summer-Time in Country—
 Sea-side Book—Rambles in Sussex—Trevillian on Freemasonry—Morgan's Notes, &c.
 —Cyclops Christianus—Vogan's Lectures—Guide to Daily Prayer—Oakeley's Letter to Christian Remembrancer—Sir T. Phillips on Wales—Corpus Ignatianum—Rock's Church of our Fathers—Sermons by Messrs. Manning, Garbett, Harris, Lowe, Bp. Doane, Bp.
 of Exeter, Mr. Martin, &c.

OCTOBER.—Meditations in Verse on the Collects—Pietas Metrica—Reader's Revelations of Life—The Strayed Reveller—Nind's Oratory—The Parson's Home—Corton on the Lord's Supper—Kings of England—Remains of Mrs. Hoffman—Pamphlets on Church Extension and Subdivision of Parishes—Andersson's Miscellaneous Addresses—Letters on Pantheism—Nichols' Translation of Erasmus' Pilgrimages—Wilde on Swift's Illness—Fox-
 ton's Popular Christianity—Auerbach's Vienna—Darling's Catalogue—Hughes on Admission of Jews to Parliament—Darling on Marriage Question—Dr. Hook on ditto—Bulwer Lytton's King Arthur—Mangin on the Church—Sunset Reverie—Last Sleep of a Child, &c.—Doctrine of the Cross, &c.—
 Moral Songs—Address to Schoolmasters—
 Miss Peck's Adventures—Bowdler's Family Prayers, &c.—Tracts, by Mr. Chandler; the London Tracts; Parker's Tracts; on Intercessory Prayer—Developments of Protestantism—D'Aubigné on Cranmer—Hunter's Historical Tracts—French on Colour—On Swedenborg—Bp. Doane's Pamphlets—
 Hatton on Greek Accents—Maskell's Ten Sermons—Middleton's Grotius—Reflections
 by Liguori—Russell's Ancient Knight—History of Spain—Pastor of Wellbourn—Sacred Lyrics—Puckle's S. Augustine's—Cuts on Sepulchral Slabs and Crosses—Jackson on the Wesleyan Conference, &c.—Charges by Archdeacon Manning and Bishop of Calcutta
 —Sermons by Messrs. Packer, Campbell, Barnes, Wilkinson, Gee, Mountain, &c.—
 Denison on Church Education Question—Gorham v. Bishop of Exeter.

